

The Dalton Gang/Jacksonville, Florida

Band Directories Copyright 2006

Brief Description	The Dalton Gang had a regional hit with their cover of Marvin Gaye's "Stubborn Kinda Fella" in 1967 but the radio stations in the North Florida/South Georgia markets never referred to it as being Beach Music. Promoter DeeJay Dino Summerlin made sure the Dalton Gang's record got plenty of air play throughout the area.
Year Established	1966-1968
Favorite Venues	Southside Womans Club, Palatka Teen Club
Music Genre/Recordings	Roll: Our Love/Stubborn Kind of Fella (1967)
Performer	Now Resides	Instrument	Years In The Band	Notes
Bazzell, John		keyboards	1966-1968	Joined James Gang in 1968
Burrell, Auburn		guitar	1966-1967	Classics IV, Mylon Lefevre & Holy Smoke
Griffin, David		Bass		The Jokers
McClure, James		drums	1967-1968
Foxworth, Richard
Brantley, Bobby		drums	1966-1967	Florida Lt. Governor Brantley from 1986 to 1990. also Secretary of the Dept. of Commerce, and Secretary of the Dept. of the Lottery