Brief Description	Opened For Ray Charles in Raleigh in 1967. The band has several big North Soul records. Frankie & Damons carved out their own great niche with strong material like the JCP recording EVERYBODY'S TIME, actually JCP 1031 and the flip of "Here Comes My Baby" (Disk #6) I HOPE YOU FIND THE WAY was Frankie & Damons second JCP Records release in 1966, and was the flip of the equally popular "Man From Soul".(Disk #9) By late '66, JCP was winding down with the declining health of head honcho Jimmy Capps. thus the 45 would be the next to last offering from the JCP label. By August of '67, Capps was deceased.
