

Lil' Bob & The Lollipops/Louisiana

Band Directories Copyright 2006

Brief Description	From the same label that brought us the classic "Kidnapper" by Jewell & Rubies, we are offered a splendid master in MY HEART'S ON FIRE, a track nurtured in the fertile environment of Cajun land. Lil' Bob & Lollipops was an important Louisiana soul group, that gave us not only this great 1964 keepsake, but the classic "I Got Loaded" as well. In 1965 , Little Bob & Lollipops cracked the ice with their break through hit, I GOT LOADED on La Louisianne 8067. The track was subsequently covered by the contemporary Tex-Mex rock band Los Lobos, where it was included in the hit movie "Bull Durham", which featured Kevin Costner and Susan Sarandon.
Year Established	1958-Current
Favorite Venues
Music Genre/Recordings	R&B: singles: "I Got Loaded", Nobody But You", "Agent Double-O Soul Album: "'No Body But You' aka "The Red and White Album" "Sweet Soul Swinger"
Performer	Now Resides	Instrument	Years In The	Notes
Gallow , McZeal		Guitar	1958-
Miller, Dalton		keyboards	1958-
Rubin, George		saxophone	1958-
Stout, Sidney		tenor sax	1958-
Lil' Bob		drums, vocals	1958-	member Louisiana Music Hall of Fame
Hart, John		saxophone	1958-	Wrote "I Got Loaded"
King, Gabriell		saxophone		