

Frank and Jack & Monulanes / Columbia, South CarolinaBand Directories Copyright 2006

Brief Description	Popular as the house band at the NCO Club at Fort Jackson, Frank & Jack started singing together in choral groups at Booker T. Washington High School in Columbia, SC around 1964-65. They started a group originally called Salt and Pepper, so-named because it combined black singers and white musicians like the Persians). After several changes, the band became The Monulanes, a name chosen as band members worked a Ouija board and were led to that combination of letters (Believe It or Not!) The group was heavily influenced by Sam & Dave, with Frank & Jack "up front" and backed by a 6-7 piece band. The group was together from 1966-1968, when Frank went to the Columbians, then into the Army, and Jack went to various groups, including Soul Inc and Family Affair.
Year Established	1966-1968
Favorite Venues	NCO Club, Fort Jackson, South Carolina
Music Genre/Recordings	"Soul Sister Annie/ When Your Baby Has Gone" Count On Me/ The Day Will Come" They recorded several sides (some unreleased, including "Jordi", a ballad Frank describes as a "beautiful song by Jack". They recorded songs and also several jingles at Arthur Smith Studios in Charlotte.
Performer	Now Resides	Instrument	Years In The Band	Notes
Graham, Frank		Vocalist		To Columbians
Woods, Jack
Northrup, Frank		Keyboards		